UM SUMMER SESSION FEATURES
TWO GHOST TOWN TOURS

MISSOULA--

The 1971 University of Montana Summer Session will sponsor tours of western Montana ghost towns June 26 and August 7.

The one-day tours are open to the general public as well as UM Summer Session staff, faculty, students and their families.

Departure time is scheduled for 7 a.m. from the University Center. The tour groups set to arrive back in Missoula at 9 p.m. in the evening.

Stops at the ghost towns of Garnet, Granite, Southern Cross and Cable City are scheduled for the noncredit tours. The itinerary also include^s/brief stops at Philipsburg and Anaconda.

Registration forms for the tours are available at the Information Desk in the University Center. Participants are asked to register by June 23 for the June 26 tour and by August 4 for the August 7 tour.

A number of University vehicles will be available for those participants who do not have their own transportation. A $5 fee will be charged for those riding in UM cars.

Participants are asked to bring a sack lunch. Dinner will be served in the Marcus Daly Hotel, Anaconda, at the cost of $2.75 per person.

Participants are advised to wear comfortable shoes and bring warm jackets.
